

BRENTSIDE HIGH SCHOOL

LEARNING AND ACHIEVING TOGETHER

Privacy Notice for Students and Parents

Ratified by Governors	March 2023
Review date	June 2025
Staff responsible	MMi

Document Owner and Approval

Monica Miglior is the owner of this document and is responsible for ensuring that this policy document is reviewed in line with the school's policy review schedule.

A current version of this document is available to all members of staff: T:\STAFF_READ\General information\Policies\CURRENT

Introduction

This privacy notice describes how we collect and use personal information about students, in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), Section 537A of the Education Act 1996 and Section 83 of the Children Act 1989.

Following Brexit, Regulation (EU) 2016/679, General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is retained EU Law and known as UK GDPR. The UK GDPR sits alongside an amended version of the Data Protection Act 2018, where the amendments relate to general personal data processing, powers of the Information Commissioner and sanctions and enforcement. The GDPR as it continues to apply in the EU is known as EU GDPR.

Who Collects This Information

Brentside High School is a 'data controller'. This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about students and parents/carers.

Categories of Student Information We Collect, Process, Hold and Share

- Personal information such as name, student number, date of birth, gender and contact information.
- Emergency contact information such as names, relationship, phone numbers and email addresses.
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility).
- Attendance details (such as sessions attended, number of absences and reasons for absence).
- Performance and assessment information.
- Behavioural information (including exclusions).
- Special educational needs information.
- Relevant medical information.
- Special categories of personal data (including biometric data, ethnicity, relevant medical information, special educational needs information).
- Images of students engaging in school activities, and images captured by the school's CCTV system (for more information please consult the school's CCTV Policy).
- Information about the use of our IT, communications and other systems, and other monitoring information.
- Financial details.
- Post-16 learning information.
- Recordings of students and/or parents/carers from the school's video conferencing platform.
- Pictures and videos, subject to parents'/carers' consent and consent from students once they are over 16 years of age.

Collecting this Information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the UK General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain student information to us or if you have a choice in this.

It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

How We Use Your Personal Information

We hold student data and use it for:

- Student selection (and to confirm the identity of prospective students and their parents/carers).
- Providing education services and extracurricular activities to students, and monitoring students' progress and educational needs.
- To enable the Department for Education and Education to make informed decisions about the funding of the school.
- To enable the Department for Education and Education to assess school performance and to set targets for schools.
- To safeguard students' welfare and providing appropriate pastoral (and where necessary medical) care.
- To support teaching differentiation (what too vague).
- To give and receive information and references about past, current and prospective students, and to provide references to potential employers of past students.
- Managing internal policy and procedures.
- To enable students to take part in assessments, to publish the results of examinations and to record students' achievements.
- To carry out statistical analysis for diversity purposes.
- For legal and regulatory purposes (for example child protection, diversity monitoring and health and safety) and to comply with legal obligations and duties of care.
- To enable relevant authorities to monitor the school's performance and to intervene or assist with incidents as appropriate.
- To monitor the use of the school's IT and communications systems in accordance with the school's IT security policy.
- To make use of photographic images of students in school publications, on the school website and on social media channels.
- Security purposes, including CCTV and
- Where otherwise reasonably necessary for the school's purposes, including to obtain appropriate professional advice and insurance for the school.
- To provide support to students after they have left the school.

The Lawful Bases on Which We Use This Information

We will only use your information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your information in the following circumstances:

- Consent: the individual has given clear consent to process their personal data for a specific purpose.
- Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract with the individual.

- Legal obligation: the processing is necessary to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).
- Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect someone's life.
- Public task: the processing is necessary to perform a task in the public interest or for official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law and
- For Departmental Censuses three times a year, as required by the Education Act 1996. More information can be found at: <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

We need all the categories of information in the list above primarily to allow us to comply with legal obligations. Please note that we may process information without knowledge or consent, where this is required or permitted by law.

Sharing Data

We may need to share your data with third parties where it is necessary. There are strict controls on who can see your information. We will not share your data if you have advised us that you do not want it shared unless it is the only way we can make sure you stay safe and healthy, or we are legally required to do so.

We share student information with:

- The Department for Education (DfE) – on a statutory basis under Section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.
- Ofsted.
- Other schools that students have attended/will attend.
- The National Health Service (NHS).
- Welfare services (such as social services).
- Law enforcement officials such as police and HMRC.
- Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO).
- Professional advisors such as lawyers and consultants.
- Support services (including insurance, IT support, information security).
- Providers of learning software such as, e.g., SchoolCloud, Satchel One, etc.
- The Local Authority.
- Youth support services – under Section 507B of the Education Act 1996, to enable them to provide information regarding training and careers as part of the education or training of 13-19 year olds.

Information will be provided to the above agencies securely or anonymised where possible.

The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations and will be required to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

We may transfer your personal information outside the UK and the EU if we do, you can expect a similar degree of protection in respect of your personal information.

We do not share information about our students with anyone without consent unless otherwise required by law.

Why We Share This Information

For example, we share students' data with the DfE on a statutory basis which underpins school funding and educational attainment. To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the DfE please go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Storing Student Data

The schools keep information about students on computer systems and sometimes on paper.

Retention Periods

Except as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law or regulation, the school only retains personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes they collected it for, as required to satisfy any legal, accounting or reporting obligations, or as necessary to resolve disputes.

Information about how we retain information can be found in our Data Retention Policy. This document can be found [LOCATION].

Automated Decision Making

Automated decision making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision making in limited circumstances.

Students will not be subject to automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

Security

We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information (i.e., against it being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way).

Youth Support Services

Students Aged 13+

Once our students reach the age of 13, we also pass student information to our local authority and/or provider of youth support services, as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds, under Section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

We must provide the students name, the parents/carers name(s) and any further information relevant to the support services role.

This enables them to provide:

- Youth Support Services
- Careers Advice Services
- Post-16 Education and Training

A parent/carer can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child/student once he/she reaches the age 16.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about students in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required, by law, to provide information about our students to the Department for Education (DfE) as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The DfE may share information about our students from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis
- Producing statistics
- Providing information, advice or guidance

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- Who is requesting the data.
- The purpose for which it is required.
- The level and sensitivity of data requested and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data.

To be granted access to student information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>.

For information about which organisations the department shares has provided pupil information with, (and for which project), please visit the following website:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dfe-external-data-shares>

To contact the DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

Under data protection legislation, parents/carers and students have the right to request access to the information that we hold about them. To make a request for your personal information or to be given access to your child's education record, please contact info@brentsidehigh.ealing.sch.uk.

Requesting Access to Your Personal Data

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is another appropriate security measure to ensure that personal information is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it.

Right to Withdraw Consent

In circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact info@brentsidehigh.ealing.sch.uk. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything within this privacy notice or have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with info@brentsidehigh.ealing.sch.uk in this first instance.

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with data protection and this privacy notice. If you have any questions about how we handle your personal information which cannot be resolved by emailing info@brentsidehigh.ealing.sch.uk, then you can contact the DPO on the details below:

Data Protection Officer: Judicium Consulting Limited
Address: 72 Cannon Street, London, EC4N 6AE
Email: dataservices@judicium.com
Web: www.judiciumeducation.co.uk
Lead Contact: Craig Stilwell

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the Information Commissioner's Office, the UK supervisory authority for data protection issues at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

We reserve the right to update this privacy notice at any time, and we will provide you with a new privacy notice when we make any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal information.